Gained in Strength

READ WHAT
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

did for the Invalid Daughter of a Prominent Lowell Tradesman.

"My daughter had for a long time been troubled with violent headaches and sleeplessness. She was pale, had no appetite, and was losing flesh rapidly. She took various remedies for her trouble, but received no benefit until she commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking half a bottle, she began to feel better. By a continued use of this medicine, her appetite returned, her cheeks began to fill out and show color, she gained in strength, her headaches disappeared, she slept better, and now says she feels like a new person."—F. P. COOKS-HALL, 6 Lyon St., Lowell.

THE LEGISLATURE.

AN IMPORTANT REPORT MADE ON THE MILITARY BILL.

The Bill to Regulate Appeals from District to Circuit Courts Causes a Big Discussion.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, JULY 27TH.

THE REPRESENTATIVES.

Speaker Naone called the House to order at the regular hour, and the usual preliminaries were had.

Rep. Robertson from the Military Committee pre-ented a report on the Military Bill, inserting a new section which reads as follows: The commander-in-chief may also organize a company of sharpshooters which shall not be a part of the National Guard but shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may from time to time be prescribed for their government by the commander-in-chief; provided, however, that such company of sharpshooters shall not be uniformed nor subject to drill duties unless called out on active service, and shall not necessarily be a part of any battalion or regimental formation." The committee also recommends a new section to the effect that no commissioned officer of the Sharpshooters shall rank with commissioned line officers of the National Guard. Various minor amendments are also offered, together with a new title for the bill.

Report tabled to be considered with the bill.

The bill regulating appeals from the District to the Circuit

Courts was taken up on its third reading.

Rep. Robertson moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed and in support of his motion picked the bill to pieces, claiming that as a piece of legislative patchwork it had no equal.

He claimed that the author of the bill had evidently picked up and copied some old law which was not applicable under present conditions.

Rep. Kamaooha, Ministers

Hatch and Damon and Rep. Richards also spoke on the bill and some personalities were indulged in between the members from Kohala and Honolulu.

The motion to indefinitely postpone was lost by 11 to 2.

The bill then passed its third

reading.

A communication was received from the Senate stating that the bills concerning diseases in imported animals and granting an extension to saloon licenses had been laid on the table; also that the Senate had refused to con-cure in the House amendments to the appropriation bill.

An engrossed copy of the Joint Resolution on registration, passed at yesterday's session, was presented, and the House at once proceeded to get tangled up with the rules on the subject and remained in that condition until the Attorney-General came in, when the entanglement got worse. Rep.

Rycroft finally straightened it out by moving to reconsider the vote of yesterday, and the resolution was read again.

Rep. Robertson then raised the point of order that the House had no right to pass a joint resolution asking for a committee to be appointed on a proposed Act which was not yet before the House.

As no one could be found who would father the resolution it was finally put in the hands of the Judiciary Committee to prevent it from being lost sight of.

The House then proceeded to take action on the military bill on its second reading, but no Hawaiian printed copies being on hand the bill was referred to the printing committee.

On motion of Rep. Robertson the Clerk was instructed to ask the Senate for a conference on the

Appropriation Bill.

The Senate bill on Ocean Cables was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The House then adjourned to

Monday 10 a. m.
